Service learning integrates meaningful community service with instruction and reflection to enrich the learning experience, teach civic responsibility, and strengthen communities.

It is required for graduation that in each year of high school, a Charles Wright Academy student will complete FOUR (4) hours of ON-CAMPUS service and FOUR (4) hours of OFF-CAMPUS service. Students who complete more hours than these may be eligible for service awards. In each academic year, service hours should be completed between June 1 and May 31 of the following year.

In the 12th grade year, new service hours are no longer logged after April 30.
